

club on having won the first competition for the Bendigo Bowls.

After refreshments had been dispensed by the ladies and the Bowlers' Orchestra had played selections, the party went out to the greens where Mrs. Findlay threw the first jack of the season and the greens were declared open.

DOMINION ROAD GREEN

Although it was a foregone conclusion that there would be no play there was an exceptionally large number of members and visitors at the official opening of the Dominion Road Bowling Club and Monte Le Grand Croquet Club on Saturday. The pavilion was tastefully decorated, and an orchestra played various musical items, whilst the guests had afternoon tea.

Mr. W. D. Kelly, president of the bowling club, in a happy speech, welcomed the visitors. At the outset of his remarks he congratulated the Monte Le Grand Croquet Club on their splendid success last season when they won the banner in their grade.

Mr. B. White, president of the croquet club, intimated that negotiations for a further lease of the croquet ground from the Dominion Road Bowling Club had been successful. The members of the croquet club were satisfied that the bowlers had made a strong effort to give them a better ground. He tendered all visitors and others a very hearty welcome, but regretted that the weather
